EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Republican party of Nevada must exercise great care in the election of a ticket this Fall. The Democrats are carefully canvassing every man as to his availability, and will do their utmost to pick out their strongest candidates. The victory of two years ago has encouraged them. The Republicans must recognize from the first the fact that a hard fight must be made. The State is naturally Republican by at least one thousand, but the unpopularity of a candidate would easily overcome this. Pick out the best men, and with them go before the people. If a ticket worthy of support is presented success will be ours, if not then count on defeat.

Herr Moeling, one of the principal navigators in the German navy, has been arrested at Kiel on a charge of having accepted a bribe of 150,000 roubles to deliver to the Rusian Government copies of the plans of all works of defense on the German coast. There are many mutterings of war in Europe just now. Bismarck's iron hand and Gladstone's statesmanship are holding things even, but should either lose their hold, war would break out in many places. The whole Continent seems to be in a volcano which is liable to burst forth at any minute.

Some enterprising cuss East has drawn a wood cut illustration of Guiteau's execution, with all the parties interested in appropriate positions. He wants to sell the newspapers copies of it, so that when the assassin falls overboard they can come out with real vivid pictures of the whole affair. That's the way nearly all illustrated papers are made up. Imagination does the whole business.

By the new criminal code for the State of New York, which is to go into effect on the 1st of December, swearing is punished by a fine of $1 for each offense, and the utterer of a profane oath within hearing of a magistrate may be sent to jail for ten days. There is more than one way of replenishing public exchequers. If this new law is rigidly enforced the national debt would be paid in three weeks.

The Russians seems bent upon expelling every Jew from the land of the Czar. An order has been issued forbidding the appointment of a Jew as chief surgeon in the army. The Czar will not object to Jews enlisting in the army as privates, but no man of the Hebrew faith must expect to rise above the ranks.

California Democrats.

First ballot for Governor; 455 votes cast—Hearst, 126; Johnson, 67; Stoneman, 117; Berry, 65; Taylor, 60; Archer, 20.

Great confusion followed the announcement of the result of the first ballot. A motion for a recess to half-past 1 o'clock was carried. Hearst's vote disappointed his followers.

Second ballot—Hearst, 128; Johnson, 65; Stoneman, 117; Taylor, 61; Berry, 66; Archer, 17.

The Californin Republican State Central Committee has decided that the delegates to the State Convention must be chosen in the regular way—by the holding of primary elections in every county. It has also resolved "that the Republican party of that State is unalterably opposed to and denounces any and all fraudulent proceedings of practices at primary or other elections."

Labor saving machinery of the most approved kind is in use in the harvest fields of California. A combined header and separator, requiring thirty-two horses to operate it, has been sent from Stockton to the Colusa ranch of Dr. Glenn.

President Jarrett of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, says that of 70,000 iron mill operatives in the West about 40,000 are on a strike. He thinks the men will be successful.

It is said that the railroad company is backing three aspirants for the California Democratic Gubernatorial nomination, Johnson, Hamilton and Taylor. At the proper time it will consolidate all its power on the strongest man.

Fears are entertained that Guiteau will not be heavy enough to break his neck when the rope catches under his ear. We suggest that a box of his book on "Truth" be tied to him, or a flat iron might do.

Controller Hallock's name is being mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for the Governorship.

A Bloody Pair.

On Sunday last Sheriff Williams of Douglas county arrested in Carson Jacob Stockert, who keeps a wood ranch in the upper part of Jacks valley, on the charge of having lived on terms of criminal intimacy with his sister, a girl 18 years of age. The preliminary examination of the accused took place at Genoa yesterday. The sister, the Carson Appeal says, testified against her brother, stating that the intimacy began about ten months ago, and that she submitted to him under the most horrible threats, which she knew he would execute had she refused. She feared giving publicity to this state of affairs believing that if she did her brother would kill her. The details of the examination are of a character too vile for publication. The Sheriff was placed upon the track of this case by neighbors who suspected what has been proved by the sister's evidence.

By dispatch from Genoa we learn that the incest beast was held in $6,000 bail, and in default was remanded to jail. The partner to his crime will have a hearing to-morrow.

End of the Passenger Rate War.

An important meeting of the managers of the Northwestern pool of railroads was held in Chicago Thursday afternoon. The roads represented were the Missouri-Pacific, the Wabash, the Chicago and Alton, the Hannibal and St. Joe, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, and the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroads. It was agreed to advance passenger rates on June 20th to the following schedule: Chicago to Kansas City, $12 60; Chicago to St. Louis, $7 50; St. Louis to Kansas City, $7 50. It was provided that the outstanding unlimited tickets should be honored by all parties to the contract. It is estimated that something less than 15,000 of these are now out in the hands of ticket scalpers and speculators. The passenger rate war, of which this is the end, began a year ago last December, since which time fares have ruled about as follows: Chicago to Kansas City, $5; Chicago to St. Louis, $4 70. Tickets were sold on the rebate plan.

Swarming With Grasshoppers.

Fred Steiner's ranch, in Reese River Valley, some 40 miles below Austin, is just swarming alive with grasshoppers. They are also plenty all over the country for 10 miles around, but on Steiner's meadow they are the worst. They were devouring the grass at such a lively rate that he had to start in cutting it before maturity, in order to get any hay at all. In some places the hoppers literally swarm in beds several inches deep, frequently clogging and stopping the mower. The Reveille says they have been bad enough for the last five or six years, but this year they are worse than usual. Steiner's seems to be a favorite resort for the pestiferous hopper.

A New Railroad.

The Colton (Cal.) Semi-Tropic says: From a prominent Central Pacific Railroad man, who was in Colton the beginning of the present week, we received the information that the railroad now building in a southeastly direction from Carson City, Nevada, has Colton for its objective point of terminus, thereby making connection with the Southern Pacific for Arizona, New Mexico and the East, and being the means of reaching the harbor of New Mexico by connecting with the California Southern.

A Berlin newspaper mentions the case of a boy who fell sick and was found, after futile treatment for a long time, to have worms in one of his lungs that had unquestionably come from a pet dog which he had been accustomed to fondle. Two dangerous surgical operations were necessary for the removal of the parasites, and the lad barely survived them. The journal advises parents generally to take note of this case, and not to allow their children to kiss their pet animals or fondle them too freely.

It will be apt to break the Democratic heart if Delaware turns up a Republican State at the Fall elections; yet it is not so improbable as may be supposed. The Democratic majority has been running down, until it has reached a fine point. In 1876, Tilden had 2,629 majority; in 1880, Hancock mustered but 1,033, and the same year the Democratic candidate for Congress was only 630 votes ahead of his competitor.

Allie Mills, aged 14, Mary Oglie, aged 17, and Mary Jones, aged 12, committed suicide at Danville, Illinois, yesterday morning by taking arsenic. Allie Mills gave as her reason that her father lived with a shameless woman. Miss Oglie's reason was that she was an orphan, and Mary Jones took the drug because the others did.

They are doing their level best to save Guiteau's neck. One week from to-day the dice. 'Tis well—let him die.

The White House Mail.

Several hundred letters are received every day at the White House. They are delivered by a special messenger. The correspondence addressed to the President is not opened by him, and it is very rare that he reads one of the thousand letters addressed to him. All of the letters are first opened by his private secretary. The majority of them are simply referred elsewhere, and never in any form come to the attention of the President. It makes no difference how "personal, private, or confidential" an envelope may be marked, it must undergo the fate of the private secretary unopened. Letters from relatives or intimate friends are sent to the President just as received, but all other letters of a character worthy of being called to his attention are simply "briefed," so that the President can see at a glance what is wanted. Applications for office who write to the White House are always referred to the Department. It has been the custom of late years to send out to every such applicant a polite formula, saying that the application has been referred to such and such a department. Some of the simple-minded correspondents think this is one of the most important steps in the way of securing the desired office. One happy man who recently received one of these formulas wrote in reply that his gratitude over the receipt of the same was "as big as an Elefent." He then added that when he should get his place his gratitude would be "as big as 2 Elefents." This formula of answer is in reality as full of encouragement as the editor's polite "rejected with thanks," sent under seal with a pile of returned manuscript. But no amount of ill success has any discouraging effect upon the people who write to the President for information, advice money or office. Out of the 50,000,000 of people in this country there is always a daily number who flatter themselves that they are not wasting good paper, pens and ink by writing to the President.

A Curious Clock.

A jeweler and watchmaker of Middlebury, Vt., has recently constructed a curious clock, which acts out to perfection the assassination of President Garfield. The machine is a common cuckoo clock, under which is a miniature depot. At the window is a ticket agent dealing out tickets, while at another a telegraph operator is seen busy at his work, and truckmen, porters, train dispatchers, etc., are all flying around as natural as life. All of these figures are of wood, about two inches long. At the end of each hour the cuckoo announces the fact, and immediately Garfield appears on the platform on which the scene is enacted, accompanied by Mr. Blaine. Guiteau is seen to follow him, having just alighted from a truck wagon, and as he fires at the President the latter falls. Just then a train of cars comes dashing in, and in the confusion all the principal actors are carried into the depot out of sight. After the train dispatcher has given the signal and the train has gone, a small door at the left opens and a priest appears, book in hand, in the act of reading a funeral service, while at the same time another door at the right opens and Guiteau appears on the gallows. The priest retires, and shortly after the gallows disappears with Guiteau, and the doors close. This is acted out at the end of each hour, and takes about three minutes.

A $28,000 Check on a Shingle.

John C. Palmer, a California pioneer, and at one time a banker and politician, died recently in Oakland at the age of sixty-three. Mr. Palmer, in the early days of California, was a member of the firm of Palmer, Cook & Co., a bank which did an immense business, and whose influence was felt throughout the State. To show his readiness to adopt original methods in an emergency, it is related that once a depositor called to draw a large sum of money ($28,000) from the bank. Mr. Palmer's consent was necessary, but he had been called away to attend to some duty at a lumber yard a mile or more from the bank. Thither the depositor hastened and made known his wants and the necessity of having them attended to at once. Mr. Palmer could find neither pen, pencil, ink or paper. But without a moment's hesitation he picked up a shingle, borrowed a piece of red chalk, and with it wrote a check on the shingle in large and distinct letters for $28,000. This was good for all the money the depositor had in the bank, and it proved an exceedingly good advertisement for Palmer. It gained confidence in the original genius of our first great banker, whom everybody admired and trusted. —[S. F. Bulletin.

Twenty-Six Costly Cigars.

Two weeks ago two lawyers of New Haven, Mass., were sitting together and smoking when the tobacco habit became the subject of conversation and a proposal to stop for a stated time was made. They finally entered into an agreement whereby neither was to smoke for two weeks, with the understanding that should one break over he was to forfeit to the other a certain number of cigars for every smoke on the basis of geometrical progression — two for the first smoke, four for the second, eight for the third, &c., when the two weeks expired. One of the parties to the bargain had smoked none, but the other had been unable to less than twenty-six cigars. Calculating the cost of cigars at $58 per thousand the cash forfeit is but a few cents short of $3,892,315.

The peculiar costume of the dwellers in Arizona is thus graphically described by a tenderfoot. "In ordinary weather he wears a belt with pistols in it. When it grows chilly he puts on another belt with pistols in it, and when it becomes really cold he throws a Winchester rifle over his shoulder."

In a Western mine there is this notice; "Do not fall down this shaft, as there are men at work at the bottom of it." The man who disregarded it was forgiven, because he couldn't read.—Ex.

DAILY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

FRIDAY.....JUNE 23, 1882.

PRICE OF DAILY JOURNAL,

12½ CENTS PER WEEK.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

Mackay will be along in a few days.

Thanks to Senator Fair for Pub. Docs.

The young ladies for the Car of State are nearly all selected.

Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels will appear here early in July.

Hon. R. M. Daggett will spend the Fourth here. Sensible man that.

The Central Pacific is moving much freight. The passenger travel is also very heavy.

M. J. Smith threw 42 and won the gold watch and chain raffled off at Chase & Thyes' last night.

Reports from the Wood River country are that it is overdone with business houses and money is very scarce.

Judge Leonard was to have orated at Virginia on the Fourth, but the change will liberate him from this duty.

Rev. Father Burchard, S. J., will lecture next Sunday evening on the subject "Is purgatory a scriptural doctrine?"

The regular communication of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M., will be held on Saturday evening. Three Trustees are to be elected.

The best part of the Fourth's sport will be at the race track. The managers are doing all they possiby can to make it enjoyable for all who attend.

Will there be a procession of Horribles or Ragamuffins on the Fourth? The great American eagle will not be fully satisfied with anything short of that.

A freight car, loaded with liquor and other inflammable substances, caught fire at Washoe yesterday. It was disconnected and despite every effort was totally destroyed. Sparks from the engine caused the fire.

The Carson Guards talk of standing in on the 4th. Our boys made a favorable impression the other day. Possibly because they did not spoil the target much. But come on and we'll bury the hatchet and shout with buckshot hereafter.

The public mind is now relieved of an intolerable incubus. The court of last resort has denied the application on behalf of Guiteau for a writ of habeas corpus, and, unless he commits suicide or dies from natural causes, he will expiate his great crime in this world by death on the gallows. Of course, we assume that the President will not interpose the prerogative of mercy in this case. As Guiteau is too great a coward to commit suicide, and, as his physical health is average good, the probability of his hanging is a strong one.

Nearly Ready.

James H. Kinkead will in a few days show the practicability of his new quartz mill. One is nearly completed and will be on exhibition at the Foundry.

Summer Solstice.

Wednesday was the first day of Summer, as fixed by the astronomers. At 8 o'clock that morning the sun reached the point in the ecliptic furthest north from the equator. The days have attained their greatest length, and henceforth until the 21st of next December will steadily grow shorter.

A Summer's Trip.

Prof. Ring is in the habit of taking an extensive tour on horseback every Summer vacation. He expects to mount "Ginger," his riding horse, and with a mule to conduct his commissary department, start off one day next week. He will go to Carson, Genoa, Yosemite, Big Trees, Stockton, Lodi, Tahoe and almost any and every point reachable on horseback. Those trips are always enjoyable and just what many of us office worms would like to take.

Our Insane.

The Silver State has a long and accurate account of the Insane Asylum. In conclusion the writer says: "The insane patients number 180 persons, of whom 32 are females. They will be removed to their new home from Stockton, California, on the night of the 30th instant, in a special train consisting of seven sleeping coaches, which the railroad company has furnished for the occasion at one-half the regular rates. Dr. Dawson thinks the cost of maintaining them will not exceed 60 cents each per day, and that the State will save at least $2,000 per month by removing them from Stockton, where they have hitherto been farmed out to Langdon & Clark, and he has made contracts for supplies on a basis which warrants the belief that the cost of maintaining them will be much less than it has been."

VIRGINIA CITY NEWS.

Generally Dull—Mackay the Only Hope—Political Gossip and Character Sketches of Candidates.

VIRGINIA, June 21, 1882.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Times continue to grow duller and the people to become more and more disheartened. Our mines have almost all shut down, and what with heavy flows of water, much fatality and no ore, the prospects are dismal indeed. The auction stores are full of goods sent there by people who must leave town and hope by selling all they have in the world to gather together enough money to at least carry them to some place where they can make a living. But where everybody wants to sell nobody wants to buy, and so even this means of raising the wind is a forlorn hope. Real estate is almost worthless. You can get any property here for what the shingles cost, and if the mines do not improve times will be worse even than they are now. Our miners have been compelled to go away in such great numbers that now there is not one at work where a few years ago there were hundreds. Yet even now we hear of men being discharged from the few mines that are at work. Much hope is had that

MACKAY'S RETURN

Will help matters greatly. The news that he is still interested in the Comstock sounds good in our ears and we look to him for relief. His return will be hailed with delight.

THE BRIAN LYON FUND

Is our latest introduction. The little girl was left alone and penniless by the death of her uncle Denis Callahan, who perished trying to save the lives of the imperiled miners. The fund has not amounted to much, simply because the people have not got it to give. Had such an appeal been made in flush times, the little girl would have had wheelbarrows of coin. But even now I have seen men whose families were out of grub and cloths put their mite into that knapsack. The disposition is here, but the purse is not. The ice-chest will be sent to San Francisco, where we hope the stock brokers will of their abundance cast in liberally. We like the suggestion of nominating

JOHN GILLIG

For Governor. John is an old Comstocker, has been one of our heaviest and wealthiest merchants, but I dare say is not overly possessed of filthy lucre just now. He is well known here for his sterling business qualities, and his charity and would make a candidate against whom not a word could be said and who would control the whole party vote and a little more.

GEN. E. S. DAVIS

Is also well liked here. He would suit Storey to a T. But I do not suppose he could afford to throw up his present situation for the Governorship. However that may be, his candidacy would be a tower of strength to the Republican ticket next Fall.

MATT CANAVAN

Is making a rough and tumble fight for the Democratic nomination. He will run Jewett Adams a close race; Marye's candidacy will make Matt's fight a harder one, and may possibly result in the success of a dark horse. But that is a family fight with which I have nothing to do.

FOURTH OF JULY.

We are coming down upon you like a wolf on the fold on the Fourth. We are anxious to feast our eyes on something green and home-like. Our desert hills are too monotonous and not a few of us will gladly avail ourselves of the low fare of $1 50 for the round trip and be there—appetites and all.

JAKE.

Virginia's Fourth.

The Chronicle does not think the Comstock celebration will amount to much. Here is what it says: "One militia company (the National Guard) has received an invitation to visit Reno, and on Friday evening, at their meeting (before any action has been taken by the people of Virginia), they voted unanimously to accept, and will go there on that day. The Reno people also engaged the Virginia band, the members accepting the offer simply because they were not sure of there being any celebration here. Many citizens also accepted invitations to visit friends outside of the county, because they thought it would be a dull day at home. Those who wish now to have a celebration in Virginia cannot blame any one but themselves if the demonstration here on the Fourth does not come up to their expectations, for they should have started in earlier and given the people a chance to make arrangements. There is no doubt that a large number of the residents of Virginia will go abroad on Independence Day."

A HAPPY THOUGHT.

Virginia City has given up its original idea of celebrating the Fourth. Reno has secured the services of Cara's band, and this discouraged the committee, whereupon it was decided to quit. Come to Reno, all hands, and we will do our best to entertain you and not "hog."

Indian War Claims.

The telegram sent out this way concerning the money Nevada will get by the passing of a bill to authorize the refunding of money paid out because of the Indian wars are greatly over-estimated. We are entitled to these amounts:

White Pine War	$17,650 98
Elko War	4,654 64
Total	$22,305 62

This is doubtless the amount intended to be paid. Besides this there is an item of $119,800 12 which this State gave in extra pay to volunteers during the Rebellion. As we understand it, the bill does not include this last item. The bill empowers the Secretary of War to examine the claims presented, audit such of them as are just and then report to Congress, when an appropriation will be made. There are many claims held by private citizens which are not included in the above.

Spring and Summer Suits.

S. Jacobs, merchant tailor, has just received a beautiful assortment of English, French and American cloths, suitable for the Spring and Summer. Those contemplating getting suits to order should call on Mr. Jacobs and examine his assortment and get his prices, and should they decide to give him an order they can feel assured of a first-class fit.

Do not forget the soap bubble social this evening at the Baptist Church. Lots of innocent amusement at a small expense. Go and help along a good cause, as the money is greatly needed at this time by the W. C. T. U.

Tom Barnett intends to give the people a benefit, no more nor less than a grand clearance sale of his immense stock of boots and shoes, furnishing goods, etc. The sale will commence on the 4th of June and continue ninety days.

The California Supreme Court has granted Wheeler, the strangler, a new trial on the ground that the lower Court, Judge Ferral presiding, erred in allowing the District Attorney to read from Brown's work on insanity without first proving that the work was generally accepted as a standard in jurisprudence. Wheeler strangled his sister-in-law and mistress, Adelia Tillson, October 26, 1880, and secreted the remains in a trunk. He was convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged.

A New York man, who keeps a "Home," boards children for $2 50 per month, which he is able to do by feeding his boarders on meat that "does not smell so very bad." He keeps the Coroner busy.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

The WEEKLY JOURNAL, published every Saturday, will be furnished to those desiring it at 2.50 per year in advance. It will contain the local news of the week, a careful summary of the State, Pacific Coast and mining news, together with a variety of miscellaneous and editorial matter, containing more reading than any weekly paper ever published in the county. Those desiring to subscribe for the WEEKLY JOURNAL will please call at the publication office.

The cabalistic O. K. was first officially used by Old Keokuk, the pacific chief of the Sacs and Foxes. When he sold Iowa to Uncle Sam he signed the deed with his initials, O. K. His co-chief, the fiery B. K. (Black Hawk), refused to sell or sign away the rights of his people to this beautiful land, and hence the "Black Hawk war." Old Keokuk years ago passed on to the happy hunting grounds of the Great Beyond, but his sign continues to supply a long-felt want in the English language.

The verdict of a Colorado jury which recently held an inquest on a Ute Indian, burned at the stake by ranchers, was that the dead savage was "overcome by heat."
